GROOMING & ETIQUETTE

These activities will all be completed on College grounds and conducted by Philippa Sherwood and Penny Mason. While not taking away from the wonderful work parents are already doing, this experience is aimed at further exposure to some daily duties many boys and men need to master. We will improve skills in ironing, sewing, bed making, tying a Windsor knot, phone etiquette, preparing a menu, setting a table, basic food preparation, baking a loaf of bread.