A lot of local school students visit retirement homes and centres on a regular basis. Also, many schools hold grandparents days as an opportunity for students to connect with seniors. While the seniors enjoy themselves, there are also a lot of benefits for the students.